KAREN A. HARBERT

Karen A. Harbert is president and chief executive officer of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce's Institute for 21st Century Energy. Harbert leads the Institute's efforts to build support for meaningful energy action nationally and internationally through policy development, education, and advocacy. Under Harbert's leadership, the Energy Institute has evolved into a premier national and international organization dedicated to advancing a constructive energy agenda with the business community, policymakers, and consumers.

Prior to joining the Chamber, Harbert was assistant secretary for policy and international affairs at the U.S. Department of Energy (DOE), where she negotiated and managed bilateral and multilateral agreements with other countries and also served as vice chairman of the International Energy Agency.

DANIEL YERGIN

Daniel Yergin is a highly respected authority on energy, international politics, and economics. He is Vice Chairman of IHS Markit, one of the leading information and advisory firms in the world. He is chairman of IHSMarkit's CERA Week conference, which CNBC has called "the Super Bowl of energy".

Dr. Yergin is the author most recently of the bestseller The Quest: Energy, Security, and the Remaking of the Modern World. Dr. Yergin is known around the world for his book The Prize: the Epic Quest for Oil Money and Power, which was awarded the Pulitzer Prize. It became a number one New York Times best seller and has been translated into 20 languages.

JOHN L. HOPKINS

John L. Hopkins is Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of NuScale Power. Since assuming the role in 2013, John has led NuScale Power's rapid development of its small modular reactor (SMR) technology, driven by over 700 dedicated staff and contractors. Smaller and simpler, NuScale's SMR is poised to re-position nuclear energy as the economic solution to meet the growing global demand for carbon-free energy. Mr. Hopkins is currently the Chairman of the executive committee of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, Washington, D.C., an organization representing over three million small to large U.S. businesses.

Prior to joining NuScale Power, Mr. Hopkins held numerous executive positions in his 24 years of service with Fluor Corporation, a Fortune 150 international engineering and construction company.

SCOTT PRUITT

On February 17, 2017, the United States Senate confirmed Scott Pruitt as the 14th Administrator of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency. Administrator Pruitt believes that promoting and protecting a strong and healthy environment is among the lifeblood priorities of the government, and that EPA is vital to that mission.

Most recently, Pruitt served as the Attorney General for Oklahoma, where he led the state's legal challenges against property rights intrusion, while protecting Oklahoma's natural resources and environment. He is recognized as a national leader in the cause to restore the proper balance between the states and federal government, and he established Oklahoma's first federalism unit to combat unwarranted regulation and overreach by the federal government.

GENERAL JAMES L. JONES, USMC (RET.)

General James L. Jones, USMC (Ret.), is founder and President of Jones Group International, a global consulting firm. Before serving as National Security Advisor to President Barack Obama, General Jones was the President and Chief Executive Officer of the U.S. Chamber Institute for 21st Century Energy. During his long and distinguished military career, General Jones served as the 32nd Commandant of the United States Marine Corps and Supreme Allied Commander, Europe (SACEUR) and Commander, United States European Command (USEUCOM). Upon retirement he served as U.S. Special Envoy for Middle East Regional Security. General Jones and his wife Diane live in McLean, Virginia and have four children and nine grandchildren.

THOMAS KUHN

Tom Kuhn is President of the Edison Electric Institute, the association that represents all U.S. investor-owned electric companies. EEI's members provide electricity for 220 million Americans, operate in all 50 states and the District of Columbia, and directly employ more than 500,000 workers. In addition,

EEI has 70 international electric companies as International Members, and 270 industry suppliers and related organizations as Associate Members. Mr. Kuhn joined the Institute in 1985 as executive vice president, was named chief operating officer in 1988, and elected president in 1990. Prior to joining EEI, Mr. Kuhn was president of the American Nuclear Energy Council, which subsequently merged with the Nuclear Energy Institute.

DAN SULLIVAN

Dan Sullivan was sworn in as Alaska's eighth United States Senator on January 6, 2015. Prior to his election to the U.S. Senate, Sullivan served as Alaska's Attorney General and Commissioner of the Alaska Department of Natural Resources, and is one of a select number of Alaskan attorneys who has held judicial clerkships on both the highest federal and state courts in Alaska. Sullivan also has a distinguished record of military and national security service, and is currently an infantry officer and Lieutenant Colonel in the U.S. Marine Corps Reserves. During the Administration of President George W. Bush, Sullivan served as the U.S. Assistant Secretary of State for Economic, Energy, and Business under Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice.

BIOS

GENE BARR

Gene Barr is President and CEO of the Pennsylvania Chamber of Business and Industry, the state's largest broad-based business advocacy association. Barr has more than 40 years of experience in various facets of government, political and public affairs activity, as well as business operations. Prior to joining the PA Chamber, he worked for BP America as well as the Associated Petroleum Industries of Pennsylvania.

HEATHER C. BRICCETTI

Heather C. Briccetti, Esq. is the president and chief executive officer (CEO) of The Business Council of New York State, Inc., the primary, statewide association advocating for New York's business community. As a visionary for New York's economy, she has created a leading voice for business on economic growth, corporate governance, tax policy, labor, manufacturing, campaign finance reform, value creation, and education, among other issues.

STEPHEN G. ROBERTS

Stephen G. Roberts is president of the West Virginia Chamber of Commerce, a statewide organization that seeks greater prosperity and a higher standard-of-living for West Virginians. A West Virginia native and graduate of West Virginia Wesleyan College, he previously worked for the Huntington, WV Regional Chamber of Commerce and BASF Corporation, and has taught in the Community College of Marshall University.

Ryan Zinke was sworn in as the 52nd Secretary of the Interior on March 1, 2017. A fifth-generation Montanan and former U.S. Navy SEAL Commander, Zinke built one of the strongest track records in the 114th Congress on championing sportsmen's access, conservation, regulatory relief, forest management, responsible energy development, and smart management of federal lands.

As Secretary of the Interior, Zinke leads an agency with more than 70,000 employees who are stewards for 20 percent of the nation's lands, including national parks, monuments, wildlife refuges and other public lands. The department oversees the responsible development of conventional and renewable energy supplies on public lands and waters and upholds trust responsibilities to the 567 federally recognized American Indian tribes and Alaska Natives.
